there is the

it is easier to

"The Class of '94 is especially unique. We entered Wheaton facing a community which was still showing signs of resentment about coeducation, having not yet seen its benefits. This brought us closer together and we are leaving with confidence and strength, as a symbol of the success of coeducation at Wheaton."

Making Memories

Convocation

This is one of the first formal days for the Class of 1994 to come together. Seniors all emerge from their rooms dressed in their gowns and head over to the chapel. The Class of 1994 file in two by two to fill the chapel pews while the underclassmen sit up in the balconies. President Marshall addresses all of us and we all rant and rave and hoot and holler. . . '94!

autumn FEST

Come home to Wheaton! The first ever autumn fest was a celebration of Wheaton at its finest with events highlighting the unique programs and perspectives of our students, faculty, staff, and alumnae/i. They all came together to catch a glimpse of the Wheaton educational experience and on-campus life. Activities included the traditional tree walk, athletic games and matches, Chorale concert, a comedy jam, workshops, panels, open houses, and finally an outdoor service project to maintain and improve the local environment.

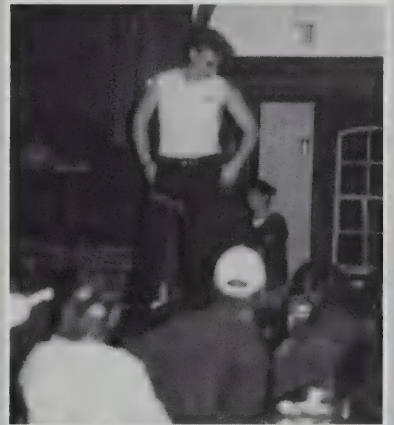

This first Fall Weekend started a wonderful tradition which will hopefully continue and grow stronger.

S. S. S.

Secret Sophomore Sibling was scaled down quite a bit this year. The administration tried to rid of the long standing tradition but the sophomore class officers stood strong against administrative wishes and conducted a great time for all involved and plenty of laughs for those watching.

Boston Ballroom Bash

Hello Mom & Dad

On Friday April 8, campus came to life as parents and families arrived for our first ever Parents' Weekend. Parents, families, friends, and students, came together to hear a stellar concert put on by our own Whims, Wheatones, and Gentleman Callers, as well as an array of luncheons, lectures, walks, and a bash in the Atrium.

This spring weekend filled with excitement, energy, and fun for all brought a wonderful new tradition to Wheaton.

Spring Weekend

We had a superior spring weekend this year. Spring weekend began with three bands in the loft on Thursday night. Saturday afternoon we had the traditional Head of the Peacock race. There were many creative crafts entered in the race this year. On Sunday four terrific bands kept the crowd roaring.

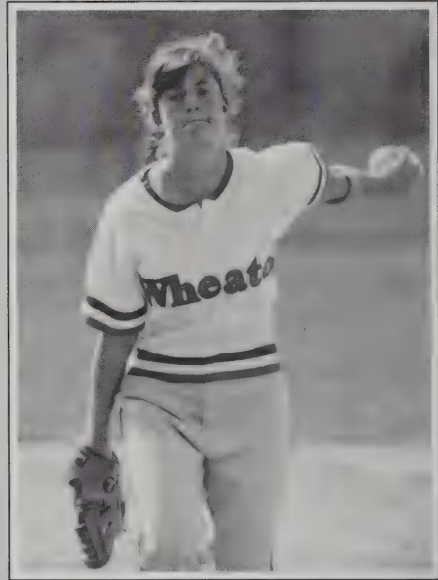

Sports

KEEPING THE SPIRIT GOING

The 1993 Field Hockey team was made up of spirit, determination, and leadership. Their team efforts showed through as they finished with an overall record of 8-8 clinching four overtime wins. The most exciting game of the season came in New8 play against rival WPI. Wheaton executed excellently and held them 1-1 at the half. They continued to play hard and lost a disappointing 4-1, ending their season. Junior goalkeeper, Marya Payeur set a Wheaton record for the most saves in a game. The offensive line was led in scoring by co-captain Shani Mason. Juniors Jade Rutanen and Kristin Hardy each scored three as did sophomore Tatum Brackett. The defensive line led by senior co-captain Kate Russell and senior Heather Manchester showed great talent and experience. The team will miss the leadership of all four seniors and hope to keep the spirit going in the year to come.

A COMPLETE TURN AROUND

The 1993 Women's fall tennis season was a success. A team of 11 players (3 freshman, 6 sophomores, and 2 juniors) compiled a 9-6 record, a complete turn around from last years record of 9-11. The Wheaton Lyons played respectfully in all matches and displayed the best balance of competitiveness and sportsmanship ever. Co-captain Brooke Harris and Jessica Berman led the team. Key returning players included Beth Cady and Caryn Markert. The addition of Sarah Evans who joined the team late last season and freshman Chrissy Humphrey added to the singles line to help the team on its way to an exciting successful season.

A NEW LEVEL OF PERFORMANCE

The Women's cross country team, led by Jill Collins, Keri Shook, Cathy Largay, Kim Barton, and Paloma Giangrade worked hard every day and brought the team to a new level of performance. The shining moment came when the team finished first in the Roger Williams Invitational Meet in mid-October.

Without question, the men's cross country team had a great season. Led by senior Keith Neal, the team improved its place in every meet this year. The best showing was a second place finish in the Tri-State Invitational held at Bryant College in October.

GETTING THEIR KICKS!

A good nucleus of seniors, aided by a group of talented underclasswomen, led the Wheaton College women's soccer team to another successful season.

LYONS REPEAT PERFORMANCE

This year the Lyons did nothing more than repeat the previous year's excellent performance, winning 12 games while losing 6 and tying 2; and again making an appearance in post season tournaments. The Lyons out played most every opponent they faced this season. They outscored opponents 46-17 on their way to recording 10 shutouts by senior goalie Drew Goodman and Will Sargent. Goodman and Sargent combined for a 0.85 goals per game average. Wheaton also out shot its opponents 298 to 157.

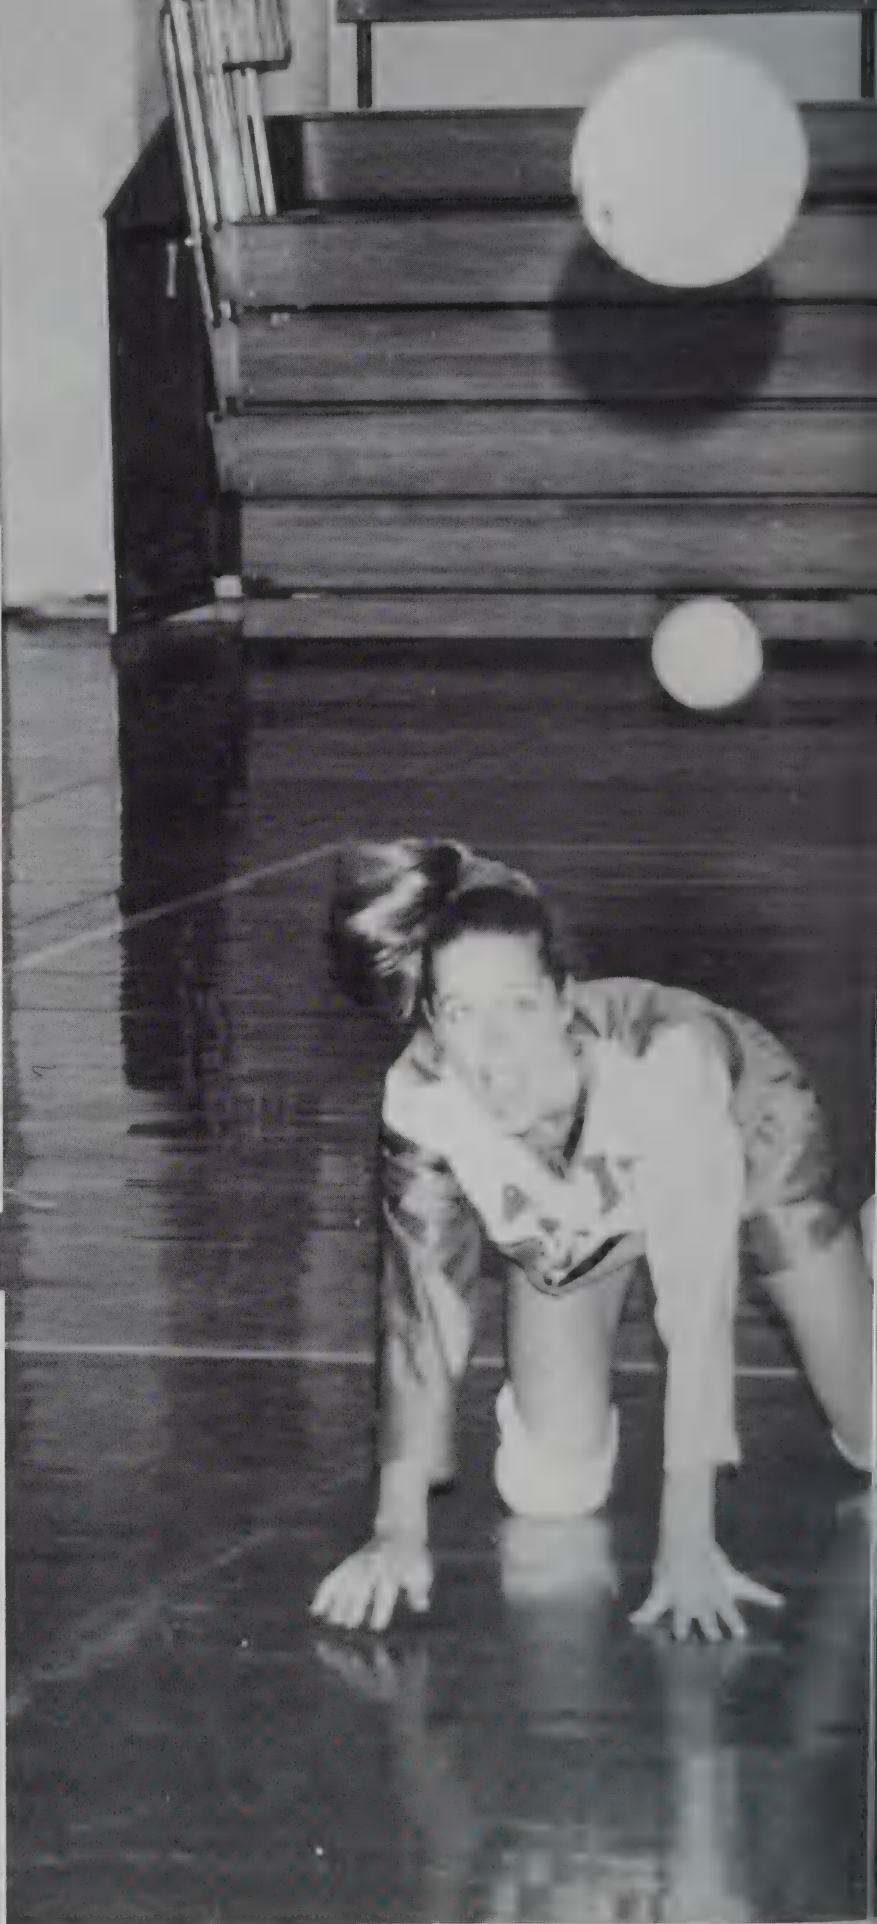

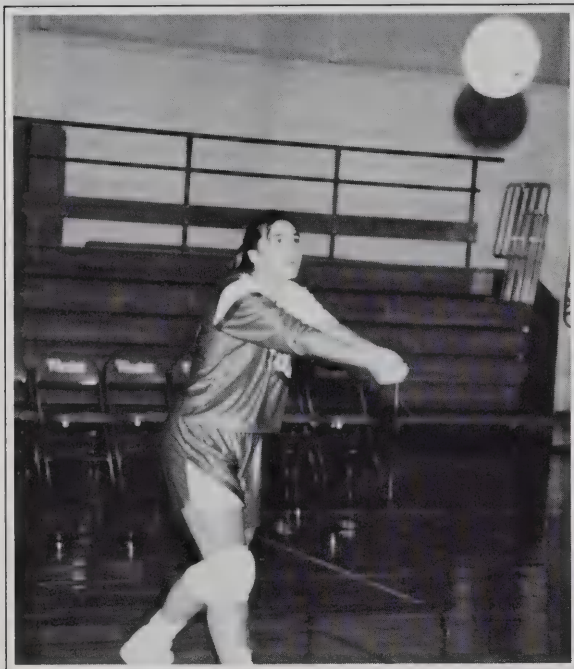

This season the Lyons were led by a pair of senior captains Greg Bowman and John Conte. Bowman, a forward, led the team in scoring with 12 goals and 9 assists for 33 points. Bowman is now the leading point scorer in Lyon history. Conte, a midfielder, was a hard working leader. "His work ethic and determination were unequaled," according to Coach Cook.

Excellent contributors to the team were Jeff Condon, Bill Brady, Andrew Erickson, Jamian Capocci, Oscar Media, Brandon LeFlem, and Sven Lehner.

RUNNER UP IN ECAC FINALS

The 1993 season came to an amazing close.

The Lyons finished 31-11 overall with another NEW8 Championship under their belts. Many personal and team records were set this year, and the team advanced to the finals of the ECAC tournament.

The NEW8 tournament started with the quarterfinal match at Wheaton on Thursday November 4th, against Mount Holyoke. The Lyons advanced to the semi-finals with a 15-4, 15-2, 15-8 win. On Saturday November 6th they won against Babson. This brought them to the finals where they beat MIT. After two losses to them in the regular season this revenge was more than sweet.

The wins in the NEW8 tournament propelled the team into the ECAC'S. On Friday November 12th they won in the quarterfinals against Connecticut College. After losses to them two weeks earlier, this really boosted the teams confidence. Wheaton then overcame Smith in the semi-finals. The team put up a good fight on the final match against MIT and walked away runner up. This season marks the best season in the history of the volleyball program and gave them the opportunity to become the first team to make the ECAC finals!!!

IMPRESSIVE TIMES SET RECORDS

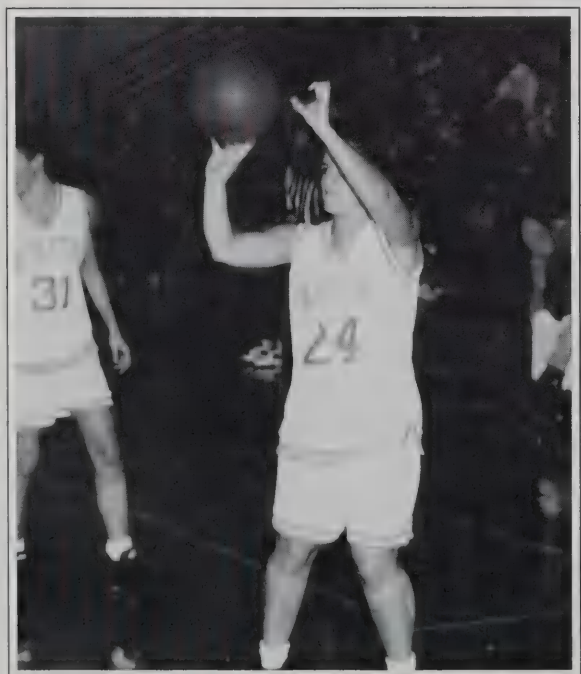

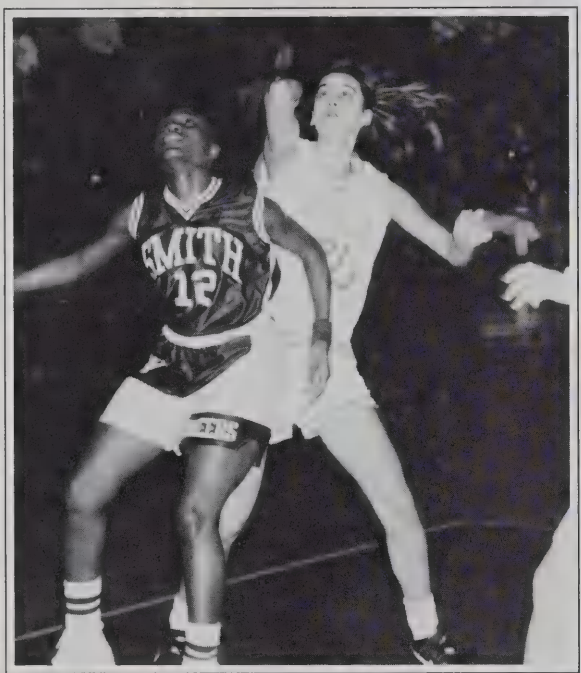

The men's and women's swimming and diving team did a fine job of assaulting their opponents and continued to splash them out of the water at New Englands. A number of individuals have managed to achieve their personal bests this season. Jim Thomas and Emile Yu posted some impressive times in setting Wheaton records. Jim has lowered his marks in the 50, 100, and 200 freestyle while Emile's record-setting performance was in the 200 breaststroke.

Co-captain Cindy Moran, Sarah Politas, and Meghan Williams are the women's New England qualifiers. The young team looks forward to a strong season in the coming year.

MAKING IT TO THE FINAL FOUR

The Women's Basketball enjoyed a tremendous season. The team finished the year with a record of 27-7, capturing the NEW8 title, and qualifying for the NCAA Division III Tournament, advancing them to the final four. The team was led by sole senior, Cathy Silva, the leading scorer in the history of the women's basketball program at Wheaton.

This strong team looks forward to a promising season filled with excitement and more wins!

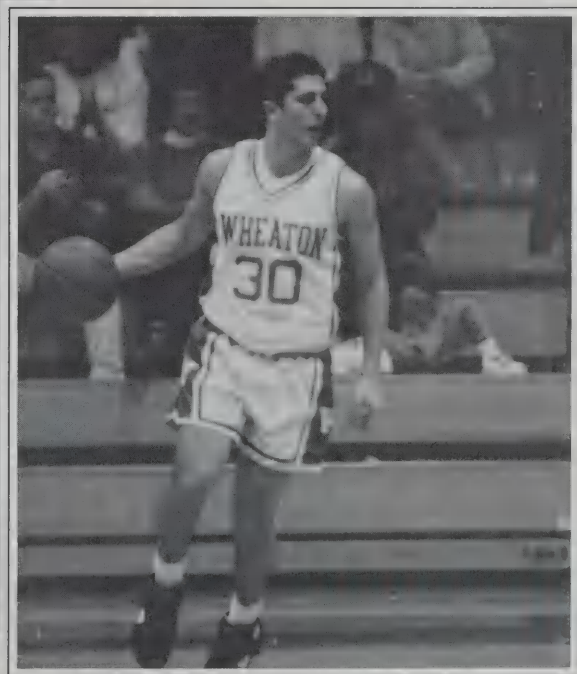

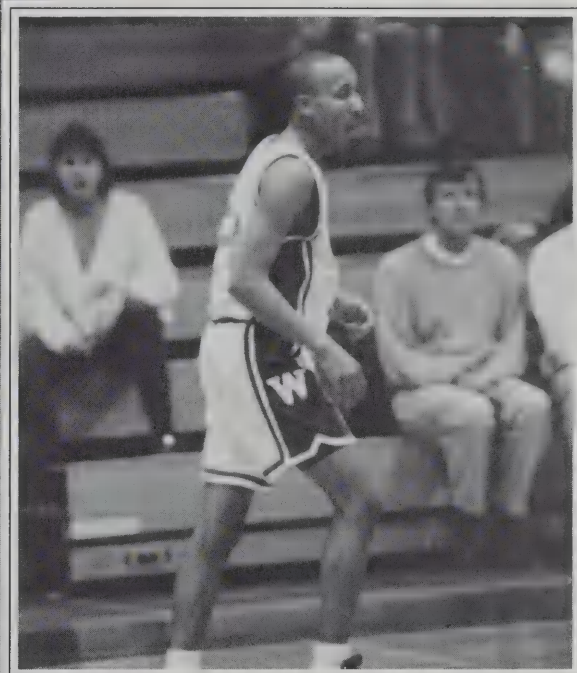

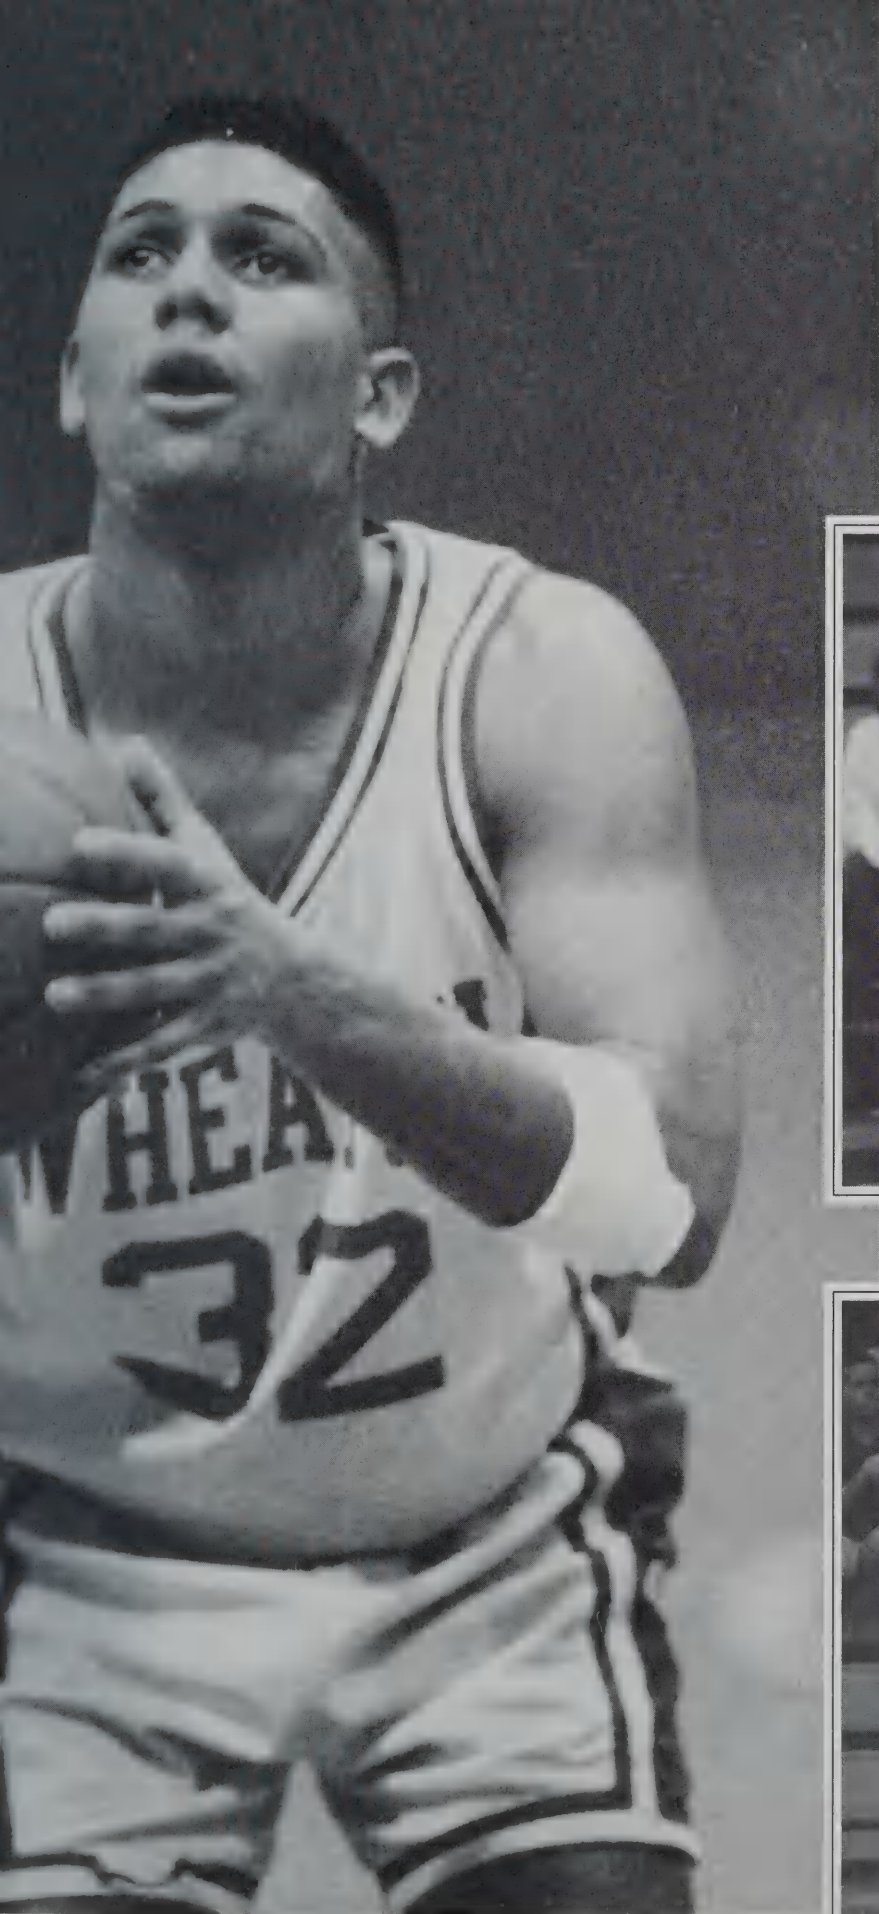

ECAC'S FOR SECOND YEAR

Following the previous year's success, the men's basketball team wanted to use this fifth season of competition to establish a tradition of annual success and competitiveness. With a preseason ranking of #5 in New England by The Boston Globe, the region was forewarned that the Lyons were expected to stay among the upper echelon. At the season's conclusion, 2 losses in a triple overtime and 3 others in the final two seconds of play were the difference between a good or a great season. The team was rewarded for its 14-9 final record with an invitation to the ECAC post-season tournament for the second consecutive season. Five different players led the team in scoring during the season as the Lyons accomplished the goal of sustaining the success earned in previous years. The lone senior and co-captain Chris McAllister was inspirational with his leadership and ably supported by junior co-captain Dave Miller. Juniors Craig Keefe, Abel Olmo, Kevin Collins, Sab Guerriero, and Khrys King were key contributors throughout the season.

THE ART OF DANCE SHINES THROUGH

The Dance Company is a strong group of eleven under the direction of Cheryl Mrozowski. The captains are seniors Robyn Byer and Tricia Lawver. They displayed various performances during the year. And took part in a very successful concert in March. Several of the students choreograph the companies own work and design their own costumes along with the help of professional choreographers in the Boston area. Their tremendous ability and knowledge of the art shines through in their performances.

5 RECEIVE SCHOLAR- ATHLETE AWARD

The synchronized swimming team was determined to improve their season. This was first done by having their first B team ever. At Collegiate Nationals, the team placed 8th overall and a team best of 7th in the team routine events. The duet of Devin Kaufmann and Brandi Pfleiderer placed 10th while the trio of Aimee Bartlett, Devin Kaufmann, and Brandi Pfleiderer placed 9th. Karen Aruta, Aimee Bartlett, Devin Kaufmann, Jackie LaMontagne, and Brandi Pfleiderer received the U.S. Synchronized Swimming Scholar Athlete Award for having a G.P.A. of 3.25 or higher. To say the least the Tritons had an excellent season.

20 QUALIFY FOR NEW ENGLANDS

In just its third year of participation the Wheaton College men's and women's track and field team qualified over 20 of its members to New Englands. Coach Steven Newman in his final year at Wheaton proudly sent 14 members of his team to the E.C.A.C.'s.

Wheaton qualified only one male athlete to New Englands, junior Frank Elms. But the women qualified an amazing 12 athletes to New Englands in both relay and field events. Athletes qualifying included twins Julie and Joanna Bergesen, Elizabeth Sleeman, Jen Woodworth, Michaela O'Neill, Kerri Bucko, Cathy Brown, Kate Killough, Joyce Boudreau, and Jen Houghton. The Lyons look forward to a promising season.

CHAMPS OF THE NEW8

The Wheaton Softball Team ended its regular season 27-11. The Lyons won the NEW8 Tournament and advanced for the first time to the ECAC Tournament. The team was led by co-captains senior Cathy Silva and junior Jade Rutanen. Key returning players included juniors Jen Howley, Kristin Hardy, Larcie Hunter, Meg Saxon, and sophomores Tish Malloy and Gaylen Hot. Next season looks to be another successful one with the addition of this years freshman. Cathy Silva and her excellent talent will be missed.

LACROSSE FINISHES

This years team had it's best regular season finish in 8 years with a final record of 7-7-0. The young squad, composed of ten freshman, six sophomores, eight juniors, and one senior worked hard improving in all areas of play. Highlights of the season included beating NEW8 rivals MIT and Wellesley, as well as Greensboro College and Plymouth State. This young team improved on its own goal scoring, assists and shots from last year with 38 more goals for a total of 137, 3 more assists with 48, and 411 shots versus 277 last year. Defensively we held our opponents to 410 shots, just three more than last year!

MCKINNEY, A SCORING LEADER

Senior midfielder Alex McKinney has been a tear this year on the lacrosse field. He is a three time captain for Coach Cook and has been a tremendous role model for the team.

This strong team ended the season with 7 losses and 8 and says a sad good-bye to four excellent players Boots Libby, P.J. Willoughby, Alex and Larry McKinney.

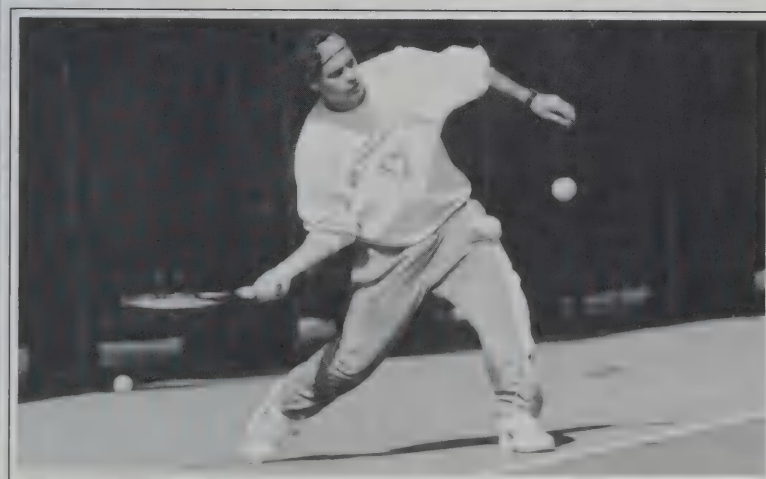

LYONS FINISH 2ND IN DIVISION III

The men's tennis team was looking to maintain its outstanding 1992 10-4 record. This year's squad was under the leadership of captain Chris Esposito looking at a whole new group of players. With the graduation of three top six players and the transferring of another player, Wheaton was left with only two top six players from last year. The addition of freshman Kord Schwarz to a #1 singles position, and freshman Jason Beckerman to a #2 slot was what the Lyons needed to put them back on track for this year's season. Both of these players have a strong U.S.T.A. ranking and are very exciting to watch. Sophomore Guillermo Dada is also expected to step into the top 6 along with freshman Yues Schellenberg who shows outstanding promise. The men's tennis team ended with an overall record of 17-5 and finished ninth out of 25 schools of all three divisions and second in division three.

Tricia Lawver is on top of things delicately balanced upon Robyn Byer; both senior captains of the Dance Company.

A Definition of Class

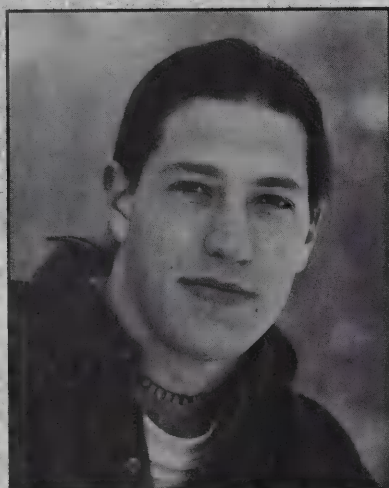

The Class of 1994 is a truly special group of people. We have all contributed in one way or another to the unseeable bond that defines our class and draws us together, making this one of the very best classes Wheaton has ever seen.
